

Save the Date!

Dominican
get-togethers in the big apple

Live
Stream

Free Event

(The event will be in Spanish)

Reservation required
Limited seating

Fernando Villalona

El Mayimbe

Music as an Expression of the People

Famous Dominican musician from Loma de Cabrera, Dajabón, Fernando Villalona, will talk about his amazing life and 45-year musical career. Fernando is one of the Dominican Republic's most popular and emblematic musicians, making more than 20 albums of merengue, cumbia, bachata, boleros and ballads that have entertained and touched the hearts of audiences around the world.

Join us for this memorable talk—and perhaps some impromptu music!

Date

Thursday May 14, 2015

Time

6:00 pm

Place

Museum of Arts and Design
Theater level (one floor below the lobby)
2 Columbus Circle
New York, NY 10019

R.S.V.P.: 212-751-5000
info@dominicangettogethers.org kenia@globalfoundationdd.org

GLOBAL FOUNDATION FOR DEMOCRACY AND DEVELOPMENT

@GFDDorg

GlobalFoundation